Mint of the United States at Philadelphia
September 16. 1885.

Sir.

In our numismatic library of about thirty volumes, we have no work on oriental Coins. We now have an opportunity of purchasing a complete set of eight volumes. Price $12.50 of Lyman H. Low of New York. The price is not exorbitant for books of that kind, some of them being now out of print and rare.

I would recommend their purchase. Coins of all descriptions are brought here nearly every day, for explanations. because the Mint is, and ought to be, the highest authority on Coins,

We sometimes have to confess our ignorance when an Oriental Coin is shown us, and then are many nice points that can only be settled by reference to standard works.

R. A. R. Cleve
Curator.

We concur in the foregoing recommendation, not only because of the practical utility of the books, but also because such works are regarded as an essential part of every good numismatic collection, and are apt to increase rather than decrease in value.

Jacob B. Eckfeldt
Assayer
Patterson Du Bois
Asst. Assayer.

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,
Superintendent.

961

Washington
Phila Sept 16/85

R. A. McClure
Consular
Joseph B. Eastfield
Assign
Patten or Dunbar asst assign

Recommends the purchase of Sch.
or Oriental Cris
e # 42 5th

RECEIVED
SEP 17 1885
U.S. MINT, PHILA.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 135

[Abstract:] Recommends the purchase of 8 vols. in oriental coins @ $42.50.

Mint of the United States at Philadelphia
September 16, 1885

Sir,

In our numismatic library of about thirty volumes, we have no work on oriental coins. We now have an opportunity of purchasing a complete set of eight volumes, price $42.50 of Lyman H. Low, of New York. The price is not exorbitant for books of that kind, some of them being now out of print and rare.

I would recommend their purchase. Coins of all descriptions are brought here nearly every day, for explanation because the Mint is, and ought to be, the highest authority on coins.

We sometimes have to confess our ignorance when on Oriental Coin is shown us, and there are many nice points that can only be settled by reference to Standard works.

R.A. McClure
Curator.

We concur in the foregoing recommendation, not only because of the practical utility of the books, but also because such works are regarded as an essential part of every good numismatic collection, and are apt to increase rather than decrease in value.

Jacob B. Eckfeldt
Assayer
Patterson DuBois
Acct. Assayer

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,
Superintendent.